FORMER MISS JOERNS VICTIM OF ACCIDENT

Young Widow of Army Officer Struck by Automobile and Critically Injured at Fond du Lac

Mrs. Corabelle Brown, one of the three daughters of Mrs. O. B. Joerns, formerly of Stevens Point, is in a critical condition in a hospital at Fond du Lac as a result of an automobile accident that occurred in that city last Friday, May 2.

Mrs. Brown, who is a trained nurse, has been doing relief work at Grafton hall, Fond du Lac. On Friday evening, while crossing a street, she was struck down and run over by an automobile. She has since been in an unconscious condition, with symptoms of a fracture of the skull. X-ray examinations made, however, failed to reveal a fracture and there is hope that her injuries may not be as serious as first believed. Information received by local relatives is to the effect that her condition is but little changed.

Mrs. Brown was Miss Corabelle Joerns. When the family, which included her father, O. B. Joerns, now deceased, moved to this city a few years ago, she did not accompany them as she was then taking a nurses' training course at a hospital in Indiana. Last June, having completed her work there, she visited in Stevens Point for a few days prior to the departure of the family for St. Paul, where they now reside. Not long afterward she enlisted in the Red Cross service and began work at Camp Beauregard, La. She was married there on Thanksgiving day to Lieut. Paul Brown, who had been an officer in the regular army for six years. At Christmas time while Lieutenant Brown and wife were visiting at Washington, D. C. he was afflicted with influenza and died in a couple of days.

Mrs. Brown is a sister of the Misses Helen and Stella Joerns, who lived here with their mother for a couple of years. Miss Helen was a member of the faculty of the local high school.

One of the cases disposed of was that of J. K. Stevens vs. Julia Dumas. The plaintiff was awarded judgment for $2,846.13 damages and costs.

BURNED BY COFFEE

Arnot Woman Suffers Painful Injuries in Accident at Her Home

Mrs. Trzebiatowski of Arnot suffered painful burns in an accident which occurred at her home on Thursday.

When bending over to lift a coffee pot of boiling water from the stove, the cover was blown off by the steam, and a quantity of the boiling liquid struck her eyes. Both eyes and eyelids were badly burned. The inflammation which set in closed the eyelids and Mrs. Trzebiatowski was rendered temporarily blind. She was brought to this city for medical treatment on Friday. Her case is progressing satisfactorily and her eyesight will be restored in a number of days.

RESPONSE MADE BY CHURCH MEN

Issue Raised by Women of Presbyterian Church Taken up by Men—They Form a Club

CHURCH WORK ITS PURPOSE

Organization is Perfected at the Close of a Banquet on Thursday

Responding to a challenge issued a number of weeks ago by the women of the Presbyterian church, the men of the congregation formed a club on Thursday evening at the close of the complimentary dinner given in the dining room of the church on invitation of the ladies of Circle No. 3, of which Mrs. C. E. Urbahns is chairman, and pledged themselves to actively participate in the work of the church. The meeting was a most enthusiastic one, and was attended by nearly 50 men.

The dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock and consisted of roast beef, mashed potatoes, brown gravy, peas, coffee, conserve, jelly, white and brown bread and apple pie.

At the close of the banquet, M. M. Ames was called upon as the best looking man present, to thank the women of Circle No. 3 for the dinner.

McLandress Speaks

Rev. R. J. McLandress, pastor of the church, then spoke to the men on the organization to be formed among the men to meet the challenge issued by the women of the congregation to do something for the church during the coming year. A discussion followed in which all who were called upon expressed enthusiasm and willingness to take a more active part in the work of the church.

Prof J. V. Collins spoke of the activities of the Bible class, and Supt. C. E. Urbahns addressed the men on the question of Sunday evening attendance, after which a rising vote was taken in which every man present pledged to attend at least two evening services a month.

Plans Outlined

C. W. Capps then read a report prepared by C. A. Law, which contained plans for the organization of a men's club. The report proposed the selection of a president, vice president and three members of an executive committee of the organization, to take up and carry through with the men any activity which will be for the benefit of the church. It was further proposed that the executive committee make selection of four committees, the first for the purpose of stimulating interest in attendance at the Sunday evening services, the second as a boys' committee, the third to increase attendance in the Men's Bible class and the fourth a social committee.

Reynolds President

Several men were selected to name the members of a committee which in turn recommended nominees for the two offices and committee. F. D. Reynolds was chosen as president of the Men's club, J. E. Weyer elected vice president, and Prof. V. E. Thompson, M. M. Ames and Marion Tardiff were named for the executive committee.

The newly elected executive committee then retired and chose a committee of five on Sunday evening attendance, headed by C. E. Urbahns.

The other committees on church activities are to be chosen in the near future.

During the time nominees were being selected, a pleasing violin-cello solo was rendered by Arthur Beijer.

THEY WANT TO COME HOME

Twenty-fourth Engineers Fear They Are Lost in France

John D. Ludwikowski, a Stevens Point young man, is a member of Company D, 24th Engineers, in France. The 24th wants to come home, but it has become discouraged over the prospect. As a soldier-poet expresses it—

"Yes we want to go back to our country To the ones that we love dear. We've done our bit and done it well, And still they keep us here."

When you get back to the States, Bud, And you ever have a chance, Speak kindly to some senator. And tell him we're still in France; Or else paint a good-sized banner, Bud, We will gladly pay the cost.

Inscribe these words upon it: "The Twenty-fourth is lost." "I am one of them," was the footnote to a copy of the poem sent to local relatives by Ludwikowski.

THROUGH TICKETS SOLD

Tickets to points on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road can now be sold at the local Soo line station, where formerly only Junction City tickets were sold. The new order is an advantage to the public, as it makes possible the checking through of baggage and avoids rechecking at Junction City. The return of Soo train No. 5 makes it possible for travelers to leave here and make convenient connections with Knowlton, Mosinee, Wausau and other points on the valley division.

MANY FAIRS PLANNED

Wisconsin will not lack for fairs this season. According to a report made to the Fair association at Madison, 50 fairs will be held in the state during the summer and fall. Return of peace assures record attendance at the fairs, declare officials and they predict a successful season.

HENRY AMBROSE DEAD

Native of Portage County Passes Away at Oshkosh after Prolonged Illness

Henry Ambrose of this city passed away at the hospital in Oshkosh at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon after an illness of more than a year. During the past week his condition had been critical. Mrs. R. C. Gibbs of Stockton and Miss Marie Ambrose of this city, sisters of the deceased, were with him at the time of his death.

The late Mr. Ambrose was born in Buena Vista township 44 years ago and had been a resident of Portage county and Stevens Point practically all of his life. He was for four years a commercial traveler for the J. I. Case company and later traveled for other business concerns. Failing health compelled him to give up his work a little more than a year ago and during the time of his illness he had been a patient at the Oshkosh hospital.

Surviving relatives include three sisters, Mrs. R. C. Gibbs of Stockton, Miss Marie Ambrose of this city and Mrs. R. A. Oberlatz of Bellingham, Wash., and two brothers, J. E. Ambrose of Owen and Fred W. Ambrose of Loveland, Colo. Deceased was an uncle of John Ambrose, who is now a student at the State Normal school here.

The remains will arrive in Stevens Point on Saturday morning, accompanied by Miss Marie Ambrose and Fred W. Ambrose. The latter has just received an honorable discharge from military service at Fort D. A. Russell, Cheyenne, Wyo., and is expected to arrive in Oshkosh this evening.

Funeral services will be held from St. Stephen's Catholic church at 9:45 o'clock Saturday morning. Rev. W. J. Rice officiating. Burial will take place in St. Stephen's cemetery.

INVITATIONS SENT OUT

Every Service Man and His Family in Portage County Given a Special

More than 1,500 invitations were mailed out Friday by the invitation committee for the Portage county "Welcome Home" celebration, although the time it is to be held is still unknown. The invitations went to sailors, marines, soldiers, Y. M. C. A. workers, Red Cross nurses, members of the Polish army and of the S. A. T. C. and their families in Portage county.

The committee has the name of practically every service man in the county, although it is probable that mistakes have been made in a few cases and that a few men will not receive invitations. Any man in Portage county who has been in his country's service and who does not receive an invitation, is asked to notify either Mrs. N. A. Week or Miss Ellida Moen, in order that the county historical records may be complete. He is to understand that he has received an invitation to the celebration, as no names have been intentionally omitted. Members of the invitation committee are Mrs. N. A. Week, Miss Ellida Moen, Guy W. Rogers and A. E. Bourn.

NORMAL TEACHERS WIN

It Is Probable That They Will Be Given the Desired Increase in Salaries

The application of Normal school teachers of Wisconsin for an increase in salary will be acted upon favorably, according to present indications.

The finance committee of the legislature at Madison has recommended an appropriation of $50,000 annually to the board of Normal school regents to take care of the salary increases and for a summer school extension course at Milwaukee.

The Normal teachers requested an annual appropriation for salary purposes and this will take care of their demand.

ACTS LIKE THE FLU

So Says Former Stevens Pointer about "Townleyism"

The so-called non-partisan league is losing ground in South Dakota, according to B. L. Maunders, a former Stevens Pointer. Mr. Maunders, who resides at Virgil, S. D., and is correspondent there for the Aplena Journal, wrote the Journal and Gazette as follows:

"This newspaper work is great stuff with me in the position I am in, buying grain and hogs and coming in contact every day with men afflicted with this non-partisan malady. But I am glad to say we also meet those who are entirely cured. The after effects are similar to that following an attack of Spanish 'flu'."

Mr. Maunders sent a copy of the paper he represents, in which was published an article written by him, self "showing up" the non-partisan league in no uncertain words.

E. church has not been conducted as yet, although many liberal pledges have already been received.

FLIVVERS GOING BIG

Children's Riding Device Manufactured Here Creates Demand.

With orders pouring in faster than they can be filled, the toy department of the Automatic Cradle Manufacturing Co. of Stevens Point is working up to an output of 1,000 "Flivvers" a day. The Flivver was invented by Roman Bukoit, son of John J. Bukoit, and he and his brother, Edmund, are in charge of the department devoted to its manufacture.

John J. Bukoit, until recently a clerk in the store of J. A. Van Rooy & Co., has recently taken a position as traveling salesman for the Flivver. Mr. Bukoit will also sell the company's other products, including automatic cradles, bassinets and "3 in 1" chairs. He has territory in Illinois, outside of Cook county.

F. J. Rogacki of Milwaukee has also taken a traveling position with the company and will sell its entire line in southern Wisconsin.

ELKS TO HAVE FLOAT

Stevens Point lodge No. 641, B. P. O. Elks, will be represented in the parade that is to be a feature of the "Welcome Home" celebration in Stevens Point by a float. The Elks sponsored a fund-raising campaign for the Salvation Army last year, and the lodge has been requested to prepare a float symbolic of the Salvation Army's great work during the war. William Moll, Alex Bergholte and Theodore Wlodarski have been appointed by Exalted Ruler J. M. Pfiffner as a committee to prepare the "open house" for ex-service men during the two-day celebration.

The trouble caused me a great deal of annoyance. Knowing that one of my neighbors recommended Doan's Kidney Pills highly, I tried them. They relieved me quickly and soon rid me of the pain entirely. The Many Mysteries of Nature

BY L. W. BOWER, M. D.

You can take an onion seed and a pansy seed, and plant them side by side in the same spot of ground. In one case, you get an onion, with its peculiar strong odor, and in the other you get a flower of rare beauty. You can plant a poppy seed and get opium (a dangerous, habit-forming drug), or you can plant a rhubarb seed and get something that helps constipation. No scientist, living or dead, can explain these mysteries of Nature. Behind the invisible life germ in each seed is hidden the deep secret that nobody understands. Everything growing out of the ground seems intended for some use in establishing natural conditions. Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., long since found out what is naturally best for women's diseases. He learned it all through treating thousands of cases. The result of his studies was a medicine called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This medicine is made of vegetable growths that nature surely intended for backache, headache, weakening drains, bearing-down pains, periodical irregularities, pelvic inflammations, and for the many disorders common to women in all ages of life. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is made of lady's slipper root, black cohosh root, unicorn root, blue cohosh root and Oregon grape root. Women who take this standard remedy know that in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription they are getting a safe woman's tonic so good that druggists everywhere sell it.

Favorite Prescription should have the full confidence of every woman in America because it contains no alcohol and no narcotic. Dr. Pierce knew, when he first made this standard medicine, that whiskey and morphine are injurious, and so he has always kept them out of his remedies. Send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. for trial pkg. Tablets.

SELLS AND BUYS PROPERTY

Gee Residence Purchased by Plover Farmer, Who Sells Farm and Moves Here.

The forthcoming removal of Alderman William D. Gee from the Sixth ward to the Second ward will result in a vacancy in the common council. Mr. Gee, who was elected a member of the council in April after filling out the unexpired term of B. W. Gee, deceased, has sold his residence property at 116 Church street to Martin Beyer, formerly of the town of Plover, and has purchased the residence property at 129 Spruce street from Mrs. Antonia Lietz of Dancy.

Buys on Spruce Street
The property Mr. Gee has just acquired is at present occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Felix Kamrowski. After it is vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Kamrowski Mr. Gee will make some improvements in the residence, which he and his wife will occupy. The property includes two lots, and Mr. Gee may decide to build a new house on the vacant lot. He will not resign as alderman until he actually changes his place of residence.

Beyer Sells Farm
Mr. Beyer, purchaser of the Church street property, has sold his 200-acre farm in the town of Plover to George Ross, trustee under the will of Hanford H. Ross, for a consideration of $387,500. OIL COMPANY OFFICIAL

Paul F. Neuman in Company Just Organized in the State of Kansas

Paul F. Neuman, formerly of Stevens Point, now of Eldora, Butler county, Kansas, is treasurer of the Unity Oil company just formed at that place with a capital of $60,000. The Walnut Valley Times of El Dorado says of the new company: "For months since the discovery of oil in the Stapleton 1, it has been predicted oil would be found in the territory north and east of the Robinson pool. Goble et al completed a dry hole on the Forrestall two and a quarter miles south of the Bates, but they encountered at least one sand with a small showing of oil. It has been the opinion of many, the Forrestall was located just at the south edge of the structure outlined by geologists. Those who comprise the Unity feel confident of making a find, at least they will test that territory and the work will be watched with keen interest."

TO SPEND $16,000 ON NORMAL LIBRARY

Splendid Appropriation to be Recommended for Stevens Point

Normal by Joint Finance Committee

Pres. John F. Sims returned from Madison Friday, bringing the welcome news to Stevens Point that the joint finance committee of the legislature will recommend to the legislature, the expenditure of $16,000 for remodeling and equipping the library at the State Normal school in this city.

The sum of money to be appropriated will be available next July, and work on the new library will begin shortly after that date. The old assembly room at the Normal school, which has been used as a general study room since the completion of the new auditorium, is to be made into a library and the $16,000 will be used in making the room a model library with latest equipment. It will be a substantial improvement to the Normal school building and one which will be welcomed by both students and faculty members, relieving the present crowded quarters.

PLANS FOR NEW HOME

Modern New Residence May Be Erected This Season.

Plans for a handsome new residence, to occupy the site of his present home at 708 Clark street, are being drawn for Fred Copps by W. L. Alban, the St. Paul architect, formerly of this city. The building will be of brick construction, two stories in height, and embody the most modern house-building ideas. Mr. Copps has not fully decided whether he will build this season but he will at least have the foundation put in this year. His present home, which is a landmark of the city and was for many years occupied by Dr. Phillips, is to be moved this week to a lot owned by Mr. Copps on Ellis street, just west of the residence of C. W. Copps.

Mr. Copps and family will occupy their present home, after it is moved, until their new residence is completed, whether this year or next.

UNION IS NOT RECOGNIZED

Eau Claire Paper Mill Takes Back Strikers on That Basis

The strike at the plant of the Dells Paper and Pulp company at Eau Claire which has been on the past 10 days, was ended Friday night without recognition of the union, the point on which the 300 employees walked out. The company agreed to take back the employees, and to deal with them in a body as employees but not as members of a union. It has not objection to the men joining a union if they so desire.

The Eau Claire mill has been paying lower wages than most of the other mills in the state, and considerably below the print paper mill at Stevens Point, and the company has promised to put a new wage scale into effect, details of which it has not yet given out to the employees. No question of wages was involved in the original strike.

MYSTERY MAN FIGURE IN CASE

Ed Peterick - Charged with Arson, Wins Freedom by Fastening Blame for Fire on Another

EVIDENCE WAS CIRCUMSTANTIAL

"Umbrella Mender" Who Was Once under Arrest, Proves Interesting Factor

Pitting circumstantial evidence against circumstantial evidence, the defense in the case of the State vs. Ed Peterick, tried in circuit court this week, won freedom for Peterick, who was charged with arson. The jury returned a verdict at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening, after taking but one ballot.

Peterick was charged with setting fire to a barn owned by G. W. Andrae of this city on a farm owned by the latter in the town of Hull on September 18, 1918. The evidence against him was entirely circumstantial, but constituted a case which, had it not been for a "mysterious stranger" would probably have been considered sufficient to fasten guilt upon Peterick.

The mysterious stranger was a feature of the case that was somewhat in the nature of a surprise. It was not until last Saturday that he was "discovered" as a possible solution of the fire mystery, but there was plenty of evidence to prove that he really existed.

Peterick was known to have cut across the Andrae farm a few hours before the fire occurred, while on his way home. Later, in some wet sand near the barn, footprints were discovered which, from their distance apart, were apparently made by a man in flight. The tracks were measured, but later, when it was planned to check up the measurements with Peterick's shoes, it was found that the figures had been lost.

Lived in the Open

The defense in its fight to secure acquittal for Peterick, presented evidence to show that a strange man, who posed as an umbrella mender, had lived in the woods near the Andrae barn from September 18 to 22 without any form of shelter except that which nature afforded him. He was seen, according to the evidence, going away from the barn at 7 o'clock in the evening the fire occurred. That was on Wednesday. On the following Saturday smoke was seen to issue from the woods a mile and three-quarters south of the place and on Sunday he visited the farm of Andrew Gollon and asked for some potatoes, eggs and pork. He was given potatoes and pork and an old coffee pot in which to do his cooking. Gollon later went to where the stranger was located, down in the woods, where he had seen the smoke, and saw where he had made his bed in a pile of ferns. On Sunday a shack on the farm of Joe Gollon was broken into, but only a quart of milk was taken, and on Sunday night the stranger was seen on the road, evidently trying to evade meeting any one, by John M. Weeks. He was dodging in and out behind the bushes alongside the road and made no response when Mr. Weeks called to him.

Arrested on Suspicion

The neighborhood became considerably excited, and two or three days after the Gollon shack was broken into, Undersheriff Frank Kubisiak arrested the man. It was suspected he was a draft evader, but he claimed to be over the draft age. He looked to be from 33 to 35 years old. The county board of exemption ordered his release after he had appeared before its members. He then disappeared and has not been seen or heard from since.

The case was one of the most interesting from a legal standpoint tried in the local court in years. District Attorney J. R. Pfiffner conducted the prosecution, while Nelson & Hanna represented the defense.

WORK IS SUCCESSFUL

Miss Margaret Tozier Accomplishing Things as School Physical Director

That Miss Margaret Tozier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Tozier of Stevens Point, is doing work of a highly successful order as director of physical education for girls in the schools of St. Joseph, Mich., is brought out in the following article from a paper of that city:

"With the gallery crowded to capacity and all extra bleachers filled with admiring parents and others who are interested in the work of the public schools, the physical training department gave a demonstration last night at the High school gymnasium, showing the types of constructive and corrective work which is being done from the kindergarten through the High school. A small admission charge was made, which brought $65 to the fund for playground and gymnasium apparatus."

"The work done by the students was of a very high order and reflects great credit on Miss Margaret Tozier, physical director of the girls' classes and the work in the grades, and on Gordon Gabel, boys' athletic director and High school coach. The work of the High school students equals that seen in many of the colleges and normal schools and rapid progress has been made in the short time the school has been equipped with ample gymnasium facilities."

"The program opened with the demonstration by the fourth and sixth grades and High school classes. The setting up exercises and marching by the younger grades, the setting up exercises and corrective work, dumb bell, Indian club and flag drills and gymnastic games by the High school girls and the forms of wrestling by the boys of the grades proved interesting to the spectators."

"The little folks of the kindergarten and grades presented their dances and dancing games and the advanced classes of the High school demonstrated what is being done in physical development and the development of poise in the pretty Japanese, Italian and Russian gymnastic dances and numbers."

"The work of the High school boys was exceptionally good. Their work in setting up and development exercises brought rounds of applause from the spectators."

"Little has been known by the general public of the work which is being done in the schools to develop the boys and girls into strong, healthy men and women. With the proper playground and gymnasium equipment much more may be accomplished."

The next meeting will be held at the Washington school building on May 22 at 3 p. m. and attendance of many mothers of the First ward is desired at the meeting.

THE BIG FOUR ALL TOGETHER

Railroad Brotherhood Organizations United in Protest Against Advertising Scheme Launched Here

ARE WARNING OTHER LODGES

Notifying Affiliated Bodies Throughout State to Guard Against the Scheme Worked Here

All of the "Big Four" railroad brotherhood lodges of Stevens Point are now united in protest against the trainmen's "time book" advertising scheme launched in this city a week or 10 days ago. In an interview with a representative of the Journal and Gazette, Austin G. Means, secretary of the local branch of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, not only asked to be put on record as being opposed to the scheme itself, but as protesting against the methods used by the two solicitors.

Mr. Means said that he had taken time to consult with all of the other officers of the trainmen's organization and found them of the same mind as himself. The other officers are: Frank Hull, president; George Butler, vice president; Arthur G. Sherman, treasurer, and A. H. Olingy, chairman of the local grievance committee.

"One of the men who came here to get out the book was formerly a news agent on the Soo line, known as 'Newsy Joe,' said Mr. Means. 'On his arrival he called on Mr. Hull and Mr. Sherman of the Trainmen's brotherhood and J. H. O'Brien of the Order of Railway Conductors, to whom he submitted letters from brotherhood officials elsewhere testifying as to his good reputation. Messrs. Hull and Sherman, who had known him before, merely gave him letters mentioning this fact, together with a statement that they believed in his honesty, not realizing that these would be construed by business people to mean that they gave their official sanction to the work he was doing.'"

Mr. Means alleges that one of the men later called at the South Side bakery and represented his proposition as being endorsed by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, through Mr. Sherman, treasurer. He also charges that one of them called C. G. Macnash by phone and, representing himself as Mr. Sherman, solicited advertising from him. Mr. Macnash, he said, later called on Mr. Sherman, who explained the entire matter to him and assured him the brotherhood had nothing to do with the proposition.

"We feel that the courtesy extended the two men by the officers of our brotherhood has been abused," Mr. Means declared. "We are going to recall the letters given them by Messrs. Hull and Sherman and are notifying all Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen lodges in the state of the scheme worked here and the complications developed, and warning them to be on the lookout. We would suggest that business men of the city recall the advertising given to the solicitors."

LUMBERMAN HURT

Rhineland Man Escapes Luckily when Soo Train Wrecks Auto

F. S. Robbins, a prominent Rhineland lumberman, escaped death by a narrow margin several days ago when a roadster which he was driving was struck and demolished by a fast Soo line passenger train on the Wisconsin & Peninsular division of the Soo.

Although thrown a distance of nearly 20 feet, Mr. Robbins escaped with a badly bruised body and a severe shaking up. Failure to notice the approach of the train until too late occasioned the accident, it is stated. The roadster was struck a glancing blow and completely demolished. Mr. Robbins was thrown clear of the wrecked car and rendered unconscious by the force of the fall. He regained consciousness in a few moments and was taken to his home, where his condition was pronounced as not being critical.

LONG ILLNESS FATAL TO MRS. BERGEMANN

Member of Old and Prominent Stevens Point Family and Resident of City Twenty-four Years is Dead

Mrs. Auguste Bergemann, a member of one of Stevens Point's old and prominent families, died at her home, 533 Main street, at 7:45 o'clock Monday evening. She had been ill for four months with a complication of ailments, and for several weeks her recovery had been despaired of.

Mrs. Bergemann, whose maiden name was Auguste Andrae, was born April 16, 1841, at Seeshen, province of Brandenburg, Germany, and was therefore in the 78th year of her age at the time of her death. At the age of 16, unaccompanied, she came to the United States and thereafter made her home with an elder brother Julius H. Andrae, at Mayville, Wis. She was united in marriage to William Bergemann in 1859 and was the mother of eight children, four of whom died in infancy. The surviving children are: Gus Bergemann, Chicago; William Bergemann, Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. W. G. Bate, city, and Mrs. G. H. Metcalfe, Platteville, Wis., who is now here. There are also five grandchildren, W. G. Bate, Jr., Mankato, Minn.; Miss Doretta Bergemann, Chicago; Miss Lilla Bergemann, Cleveland, and the Misses Lillian and Norma Metcalfe, Platteville, and two great grandchildren, Will and Jack Bate, Mankato, Minn.

Mrs. Bergemann was a sister of the late G. F. Andrae, for many years one of Stevens Point's leading business men, and an aunt of G. W. Andrae, who succeeded to the G. F. Andrae interests after the latter's death. Another brother of the deceased, H. G. Andrae, is a resident of Chicago.

Mrs. Bergemann came to Stevens Point 24 years ago, following the death of Mrs. G. F. Andrae, and had since made her home here.

The funeral will probably be held on Thursday, but the arrangements have not been definitely made.

BILL TURNED DOWN

Board of Education Refuses to Order Payment for Repairs at Jefferson School

A bill of $9.25 submitted to the board of education some time ago by Finch Bros. for a steam valve, draining the heating system at the Jefferson school, and labor connected with the work, was finally disallowed by the board at its May meeting on Monday evening.

According to the board, the heating system at the Jefferson school has never proved entirely satisfactory, and hardly a meeting has gone by but what the subject has been given discussion by the board members.

The bill for repairs from Finch Bros., the firm which installed the system, was presented at the April meeting and withheld until it was investigated. On Monday evening Junior Sparks of the High school building was called upon to report for the Jefferson school janitor, who, it had been reported, had ordered the repairs at the school which entailed the expense bill presented by Finch Bros.

Mr. Sparks recited in detail what had been in turn reported to him by the janitor of the Jefferson school. After a discussion, the board voted to disallow the bill for the services.

Hancock News: The Journal and Gazette of Stevens Point have consolidated. The public also gets better service with one good paper and at less expense than with two that are struggling for existence.

Five Generations Crowded into Five Years

In change of conditions the gap that divides 1919 from 1914 is as great as the gap that divides the Twentieth century from the Eighteenth.

The man who looks to a return of the conditions of 1914 in adjusting business or social relations is as sadly out of joint as if he looked to a return of the conditions of 1800.

Think of the things this short five years have witnessed!

Machines loaded with men and cargoes fly through the air for long distances at the rate of a hundred miles an hour. Ships travel under the seas at speeds that rival the fastest sailing vessels of a hundred years ago. Men on the surface of the earth talk through wireless telephones to men flying a mile in the air.

Great tonnage of freight is moved by trucks over open roads for greater distances and at higher speeds than were achieved by our early railroads.

Ships that required years for construction are built in a month. Time of production for commodities of all kinds have been cut and cut again. Processes of manufacture have been revolutionized.

America has passed from a debtor nation, owing billions, to a creditor nation, leading billions. Thirty thousand and security holders in America have expanded into 30,000,000.

The impossibilities of 60 months ago have become common occurrences.

Financially, commercially, socially, the world has been turned upside down.

We are in a new world. The past and its conditions have gone never to return.

We are living in a new era. It's time we realized it.

If you have something to sell—go ahead and sell it. If you need anything—go ahead and buy it. You will not be able to either buy or sell at the price level of five years ago. Stop thinking about it. Do business.

Seeds of Future Trouble

The peace treaty contains seeds from which future trouble may grow. They are talking "revanche" now in Germany, and of the regaining of "Germania irredentia." The Germans are wonderful imitators, and with their imagination fired by what France accomplished by keeping alive the hope of regaining her lost provinces and what Italy gained by her "Italia irredentia" movement, they would follow along the same lines and improve on the method and thoroughness of the effort made by their neighbors.

Dr. Max Pfeffer, secretary of the Central party, one of the strongest in Germany, says:

"Germany, with her tremendous vitality and industry, is certain to recover much more quickly than France, which fears and dreads that Germany will regain her old place in the world in twenty, thirty, even in fifty years. While she has us down, France wants to prevent us from ever getting on our feet again. If France succeeds in forcing such a peace on us, it means the beginning of Germany's revenge—the end of France. If France should attempt to keep her hold on the Rhineland, the German people would rise up, and it would mean a war of liberation in ten years' time."

German complaint of the peace terms is mainly because of the cession of the Saar coal basin, adjoining Lorraine, to France for 15 years with a proviso that a vote be taken at that time to determine popular preference, and the cession of the district around Dantzig to Poland, so far as the territorial concessions are concerned, while she also complains bitterly of the size of the indemnity.

Hope of the friends of peace rests principally with the peace party in Germany and with the moderates in England and America. A large party in Germany now wants peace at any price, and will go a long way to maintain peace once it is restored. That party will be assisted by considerate treatment of Germany on the part of the Anglo-Franco-American entente. It would seem to be the wise thing to give Germany all the light she wants, if she wants that, but if she shows a disposition to get along with the other countries of the world and to recognize their rights, to admit her to the League of Nations and allow her a full share in the development of the world. The world needs the brains and energy of Germany in the solution of the great problems of the future, and all that the other peoples need to be assured of is Germany's sincere repentance and firm decision hereafter to play the game fairly. Germany is on her good behavior. Should she win back the good opinion of other countries, a lightening of the indemnity and other restrictions laid upon her may be expected in years to come. In the meantime it must be recognized that there are elements of trouble in Germany which still threaten the peace of the world.

The Treaty of Peace

The peace treaty takes from Germany one-fifth of her territory. In her territorial losses she is to be considered more fortunate than otherwise for on the west she has been asked to cede little. She is required there to withdraw from Alsace-Lorraine, which is French territory anyhow, to give up temporarily a small strip of valuable coal lands in compensation for the coal mines she ruined in France and to give to Belgium a bit of territory along the international line. Germany's territorial losses in the west, outside of Alsace-Lorraine, to which she had no right except that of conquest, are not much larger in extent than Portage county. In respect of territory the concessions made to France are moderate. It would have been no more severe in France to take all the German territory west of the Rhine now than it was in Germany to take Alsace-Lorraine in 1870.

It is in the east where Germany suffers her principal territorial losses. There too the districts she cedes are not German. They are Polish. She is simply giving up what is not fairly hers, but has been held only by force.

Her territorial concessions in one respect are a benefit to Germany. She rid herself of alien populations. The people who remain in her jurisdiction are German in blood and sentiment. But as a military power they weaken her greatly. She gives up the points of advantage from which she could strike at her neighbors on each side. She loses millions of Poles and Frenchmen whom she had compelled to serve in her armies against their own people. The area of Germany on the new map will be about 160,000 square miles, or about three-fourths the area of France. Germany also is required to cut down her fleet and army, to stop compulsory military training, to pay indemnities so tremendous that her people will groan under the burden for a century. The terms in general are pronounced hard, but just.

BOSTON HONORS MEN

Wisconsin Soldiers of 120th Field
Artillery Entertained in Eastern City.

A dispatch from Boston brings the information that 300 Wisconsin soldiers of the 120th Field Artillery of the 32nd division, and the 150th machine gun company of the Rainbow division, were received by Governor Coolidge and entertained in the state house in Boston on Thursday.

Later they attended the Boston-Washington ball game at Boston. The men spent the night at Charleston, and in the morning, led by Colonel Penner, marched to Boston common. Many Stevens Point men are in the 120th and it is altogether probable that a number of local men were included in the party.

Governor Phillip is at Camp Devens and spoke in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium in the cantonment at the camp on Friday evening, to the Wisconsin soldiers comprising the machine gun and field artillery units. The men will leave Camp Devens next Monday noon for Camp Grant, Ill.

EXAMINATIONS CONTINUED

Two-Day Session Necessary at Several of County Centers

Examinations for rural school young people of Portage county who will be graduated in June, which were begun at 10 different points in the county on Thursday, were continued on Friday in centers where a large number of boys and girls reported.

Miss Marion Bannach and Miss Pauline Thompson conducted examinations for 146 prospective rural graduates during the two days. At Junction City 53 children were given exams, and 13 at Custer. Custer is a new center this year, established for the convenience of the pupils of that vicinity.

Other places in the county where examinations were conducted were Rosholt, Nelsonville, Amherst Junction, Lanark Jt. 5, Almond village, Bancroft and Kellner.

EAGLEBURGER RETURNS

Sidney Eagleburger, one of Stevens Point's volunteer soldiers who know from actual experience what modern warfare means, landed at New York Monday with the other members of the band of the 127th Infantry regiment, 32nd division. "Sid" first enlisted in Troop I of this city in the spring of 1917, but later secured a transfer to the band of the Second regiment, Wisconsin National Guard, the headquarters of which was at Marshfield. He trained at Camp Douglas and Waco and went overseas in March, 1918. Although in a "non-combatant" branch, he saw weeks of service at the front and was frequently in the thick of the fighting while rescuing fallen comrades. The band boys, when at the front, had a particularly dangerous job in moving the injured to safety, but "Sid" came through without serious mishap. He expects to receive his discharge at Camp Custer and to be home the last of this week.

AMBULANCE DRIVER HOME

Hans Virum, who was overseas as an ambulance driver in the "S. S. U.," an organization of American soldiers which worked with the French, arrived home last Friday. He entered the service last July 23 and reached France in September. Although he did not get to the front while fighting was going on, he had the opportunity of seeing some of the battlefields of northern France and Belgium after the armistice. On his return trip he arrived at Hoboken on Easter Sunday. Mr. Virum is a son of Mrs. S. L. Virum, 108 Portage street.

RUSSELL GRAY RETURNS

One of the soldiers returning on the liner George Washington, which docked at New York last week, was Russell Gray, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Gray, moved to Gary, Ind., a few months ago from Stevens Point. Mr. Gray was a corporal in the motor corps and had been in France since March, 1918. Most of the time he was overseas he drove automobiles for officers of the American forces. He has been with the forces of occupation in Germany and has also seen much of the country in France. On a post card sent to Mrs. N. A. Week of this city he said he expected to visit Stevens Point soon.

The Boys Are COMING HOME

AND as they march up the Avenue from the Soo station, amid the cheering thousands, they typify a new order of things. They stand for the zip and pep of Americanism, the things which put the punch into the war and settled it quick when they got into it. They are right up to the minute, and when they get here they are going to liven up this old town.

There are big times ahead, and they are to have a big part in them

Are you personally in line with the new order of things? Is your appearance, your dress, such as typify American up-to-dateness and pep? You can't put anything over nowadays unless you are well dressed. Good clothes are half the battle.

If your clothes are not such as give you confidence in yourself, see us at once. We have the newest designs in goods and cut. Among the new fabrics to which we direct your attention—we have a lot of others too—is

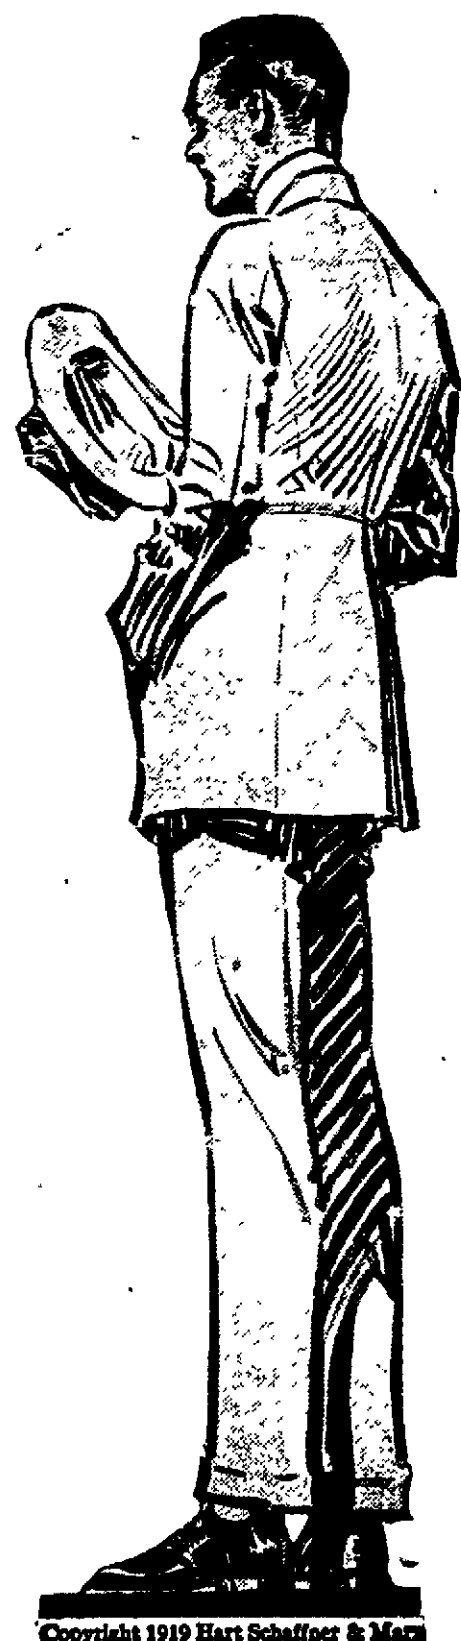

CLOTH OF THE ALLIES

You'll like this rich, new fabric, suited alike to the young men's models and to the more reserved styles.

Battle red of America and Britain and horizon blue of France, cunningly blended, make this new cloth rich and colorful—the fabric hit of the season.
